THE 60 PLUS ASSOCIATION WITH SINGER, PAT BOONE ENDORSE TIM SCOTT FOR CONGRESS

Alexandria, VA – Legendary entertainer Pat Boone, spokesman for a national non-partisan senior citizen group, announced today that Tim Scott has won the 60 Plus Association’s Honorary Guardian of Seniors’ Rights award. Scott is a Republican candidate for the U.S. House of Representatives in SC-01.

Boone, still performing at concerts, was a recording, movie and TV star second to none in the 1950s, 60s and 70s, and had 38 top 10 hits during his career. Now a national spokesman for 60 Plus, Boone labeled Scott a “fighter for the elderly.”

The Association’s Guardian Award is presented to Democrats and Republicans in Congress based on their “senior friendly” voting records. The Honorary Award is given to those running for office and is based on their views on seniors’ issues.

“Tim Scott can always be counted on to protect Social Security and Medicare,” Boone said. “Tim Scott will be a tax cutter, protecting the pocket books of senior citizens. 60 Plus calls on nearly 5.5 million seniors nationally for support, so I believe I can speak on behalf of seniors when I say that they can count on Tim Scott. Clearly, seniors will have no finer friend in Congress than Tim Scott.”
